Let's Start!

I'll help you make dinner!

Learning Outcome

Exchange advice and suggestions in communicative situations.

Ask your partner:

- How often do you make promises to your family or friends?
- What do you usually promise to do or not to do?

Can Do Statements

- I can ask for and offer help or advice.
- I can talk about future actions.
- I can express complex statements using words like who, that or which.

Let's Explore!

Vanessa enjoys the DJ on radio KZ 2740!

* The "DJ" is the disc jockey who plays the music.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Sally: Well, I'm here! I'll do anything. I'm going to listen, learn and help!
- Vanessa: See that rice that's on the left? Put it in the bowl that I put in the sink.
- Sally: Okay.
- Vanessa: You're going to rinse the rice gently, please.
- Sally: Ok. Should I use warm or cold water?
- Vanessa: Whichever is most comfortable for you.
- Sally: Where do you need me next?
- Vanessa: Can you cut up these yellow peppers that I've seeded?
- Sally: How wide should the slices be?
- Vanessa: Please make them thin, but not too thin. You should curl back your fingers so you don't cut them.
- Sally: Good idea.
- Vanessa: Should I put on some music?
- Sally: I can do that! What's the station that you like? It comes on in the early evening right?
- Vanessa: That's 'Melody Time'. Tune into KZ 2740. I also listen to 'What's Current', which is on in the afternoon. It starts again next weekend and plays from 1:00 to 3:00. The DJ who runs it has such a great voice.
- Sally: I'm ready for my next task.
- Vanessa: You're going to set the table.
- Sally: Is Peter bringing flowers? They'll make the table look nice for the photos.
- Vanessa: Good idea.
- Sally: I'll call and tell him. He's coming around 5, right?
- Vanessa: Uhm-hum.

Let's Practice!

Requesting and Offering Help by E-mail

When you ask someone for help or advice, it is important to be very polite.

Here are some common sentences and expressions that are considered polite.

Offering for Help	Asking for Help
Where do you need me next? Should I put on some music? I can do that!	Can you cut up these yellow peppers that I've seeded? Please make them thin, but not too thin.
Asking for Advice	Offering Advice
Should I use warm or cold water? How wide should the slices be?	Whichever is most comfortable for you. You should curl back your fingers so you don't cut them.

Learning Points

The Future with Will, Going to, the Present Simple

You can use three different tenses to talk about the future.

When you talk about things that are not decided or when you make a decision at the moment of speaking for the future, you use the modal will.

When you ask about intentions, you use be going to.

When you talk about things that are scheduled, like programs, classes, buses or trains, you use the Present Simple tense.

Deciding Now

I'll do anything.

They'll make the table look nice for the photos.

Intentions

I'm going to listen, learn and help!

You're going to rinse the rice gently, please.

Schedules

It comes on in the early evening right?

It starts again next weekend and plays from 1:00 to 3:00.
